

Outstanding Young Floridians

Dear Community Leader:

Every year JCI Florida/the Florida Junior Chamber (Jaycees) chooses individuals to receive awards for their exceptional service in a specific organization or profession. This year we will celebrate the 2018 Congress of Outstanding Young Floridians on Saturday, February 16th, 2019 at the International Palms Resort in Cocoa Beach Florida.

We are now accepting nominations for the awards listed below. If you feel a member of your organization exemplifies the stated qualities and is deserving of one of these awards, please complete the attached nomination form and provide all requested attachments. Please note that each nominee must be able to attend the awards ceremony in order to be considered. The honoree and one (1) guest will each be provided dinner at the awards ceremony and, if requested, will be provided one (1) hotel night stay at no cost to the recipient.

The submission deadline is January 25th, 2019.

The Jaycees is an organization for young people ages 18-40 that teach leadership development and business skills through community development and individual development projects. We have over 90 years of experience and have grown to include chapters in over 100 countries. We appreciate the time you take to recognize those deserving individuals in your organization. We at the Florida Jaycees believe in everyday heroes and cherish the opportunity to honor them at our Outstanding Young Floridians Program. Thank you for your support. If you have any questions, or would be interested in becoming a corporate sponsor of this program, please contact info@hollywoodfljaycees.com

AWARD CATEGORIES

The following 12 awards are considered as the Florida Jaycees Outstanding Floridian program. The categories are used to highlight that person who is an Outstanding Floridian in a specific area. Each winner MUST be between the ages of 18 - 40 (inclusive) except the Hillary McCabe Outstanding Student Award, Outstanding Floridian and Pioneer. You are encouraged to submit multiple nominees in each category, but each nominee must be able to attend the ceremony to be considered.

OUTSTANDING FLORIDIAN --The Outstanding Floridian award is given to an individual with extraordinary talent and initiative, have made important contributions to the general welfare of the community, state or nation, and to their chosen field or profession. The nominee must be U.S. citizens or apply for citizenship by January 1st of the previous year and must be residents of the state of Florida. These awards are sponsored by the Florida JCI Senate.

OUTSTANDING YOUNG RELIGIOUS LEADER --The Outstanding Young Religious Leader Award recognizes the outstanding young man or woman who has given the most effective evidence during the year of his or her faith in God through church work or other community activities. Nominees must be between the ages of 18 and 40, and shall not be ordained or professionally involved in religious work.

J.L. MCMULLEN AWARD (GOOD GOVERNMENT AWARD)--The Good Government Award recognizes one citizen in Florida who has contributed the most to good government during the past year by his or her work activities that go beyond the scope of one's normal responsibilities. Nominees must be between the ages of 18 and 40, who may or may not be office holders and they need not be residents of the submitting chapter's local area. The winner will be that Florida citizen who has done the most to foster good government during the past year.

OUTSTANDING YOUNG FARMER AWARD--This award recognizes the outstanding young farmer between the ages of 18 and 40 in the state of Florida. The purpose of this award is to foster better urban-rural relations through Jaycee/farmer contacts and by creating a greater public interest in and understanding of today's farmer and their problems. Local chapters are urged to recognize promising young farmers in their community with the local OYF award and then submit the winner for Florida OYF award. The Florida winner, in turn, may be submitted for national competition.

Outstanding Young Floridians

RALPH M. WILLIAMS, JR. MEMORIAL AWARD (OUTSTANDING YOUNG EDUCATOR AWARD)--Ralph M Williams Jr. was the first black Florida Jaycee. He was a member of the Merritt Island Jaycees and served his community with excellence. Mr. Williams received the Outstanding Young Educator Award in 1965. He served his local school as a classroom teacher, administrator and finally as an area superintendent - totaling 35 years of unwavering service to education. The Ralph M. Williams, Jr. Memorial Award program seeks to find the young man or woman between the ages of 18 and 40 who has made the greatest contribution to the teaching or education profession or is the most effective classroom teacher in the state of Florida.

ROBERT (BOB) ASPINALL (OUTSTANDING YOUNG FIREFIGHTER/EMT)--This award honors the Outstanding Young Fire Fighter, Paramedic or Emergency Technician between the ages of 18 and 40 in the state of Florida. This award is designed to honor an individual in this profession who has dedicated their lives to the service of mankind.

GENERAL "CHAPPIE" JAMES MEMORIAL AWARD (OUTSTANDING AMERICAN) --The General "Chappie" James Memorial Award was previously known as Florida's Outstanding American Award and it is presented to the one Florida citizen, between the ages of 18 and 40, who has been a particular outstanding example of the traditions and ideals which have made our country great. The winner will have provided a splendid personal example of patriotic spirit and by his or her activities will have encouraged others to revere our American traditions and to practice its highest principles. This award is named in memory of Daniel "Chappie" James, the first black Four-Star General in U.S. military history. His distinguished career included being an ace combat pilot, flying 101 combat missions in the Korean War and appointments as Deputy Secretary of Defense, Vice Commander of the U.S. Air Force's Military Airlift Command and Commander-in-Chief of the North American Air Defense Command. He was well known for his speeches on Americanism and patriotism, being called "an eloquent spokesman for the American Dream we so rarely achieve," and for his concern regarding the future of the young people of our nation. General James was an active member of the Pensacola Jaycees until his death in 1978.

COL WILLIAM CARR MEMORIAL AWARD (ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR)--The Entrepreneur of the Year Award, started by the North Miami Beach Jaycees, is in memory of the late USAF Col. William Carr. Carr, a longtime North Dade resident and city councilman, served as a living example of commitment to the community. He fully recognized the value civic-minded organizations, like the Jaycees, could have in the community and actively sought their participation in the municipal process. This award is presented to a merchant or professional between the ages of 18 and 40, in recognition of his or her commitment to the community.

Outstanding Young Floridians

HILLARY MCCABE MEMORIAL AWARD (OUTSTANDING LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT) --The Hillary McCabe Memorial Award, started by the Miami Lakes Jaycees, will be awarded annually to a high school student who demonstrates extraordinary character and commitment to the community. This award is named in memory of Hillary McCabe, a young Miami Lakes resident who fought admirably to remain one step ahead of cancer. Her resilience, perseverance and relentless spirit were a testimony to be promised the youth in the community hold.

OUTSTANDING YOUNG ENVIRONMENTALIST AWARD--This award recognizes the young man or woman from the state of Florida who, through his or her profession or volunteer work, have improved the general awareness of the need for environmental care and concern. Nominees must be between the ages of 18 and 40.

COOPER-TAYLOR-MOON MEMORIAL AWARD (PUBLIC SAFETY/LAW ENFORCEMENT)--The Cooper-Taylor-Moon Memorial Award is presented to that Florida citizen who has done the most to promote safety. "Safety" includes any area of human activity, and is not restricted to highway safety. Nominees must be between the ages of 18 and 40. The award is named in memory of two Gainesville Jaycees, George Cooper and Bob Taylor, who died in an accident while driving to the 1953 Jaycee Summer Conference. James H. Moon was a Florida Jaycee and Jacksonville policemen who was killed in the line of duty on September 27, 1971.

PIONEER AWARDS--The Pioneer Award is given to a person who, because of overall extraordinary talent and initiative, have made important contributions to the general welfare of the community, state

- or nation, and to their chosen field or profession.
